MRI today once again recognized the top performing offices worldwide at the prestigious Pacesetter Awards Dinner held at the Sheraton Maui Resort in Hawaii. As one of the top 10% of offices worldwide, The Meridian Group was awarded the Pacesetter recognition award for the 3rd year in a row. This is in addition to being recognized in previous years as the Top New Office Worldwide.

“We are excited to be recognized once again as one of the top offices worldwide. Having the track record and consistency of exceptional performance is critical. Our clients have come to expect nothing less”, said Paul Hales, Managing Partner for The Meridian Group. The Meridian Group specializes in the technology, software and telecom industries, and has been able to leverage the background and experience of over 30 years in those industries to be of value to their clients and candidates.

Matt Hales was once again individually recognized as one of the top Account Executives for MRI. Matt has developed significant relationships with his clients and has assisted them in building sales and support organizations second to none in the industry. “I am very fortunate”, said Matt Hales, “We have worked hard to deliver value to our clients. They understand attracting Top Talent can impact their business and make significant contributions in many other ways. They understand the value of comparing and evaluating talent within their market and making an insightful talent decision.

Tom Schutz was also recognized as one of the Project Coordinators for MRI. The PC role within the MRI process is extremely important and critical the methodology. Properly managed, this ensures that both clients and candidates expectations are met and in a timely manner. “This is a very exciting time”, said Tom Schutz, “we are working with true “Impact Players” that can help our clients exceed their goals and helping our candidates find the very best opportunities in the industries.”
